

Registration & Fees:

Advance registration is requested by 17 April. Please complete and return the enclosed registration form to reserve seating.

War Against Terrorism - 2 days. Critical Incident Stress Management Courses- 2 day certification courses.

Note: Please do not make travel departure arrangements prior to 1900 on the day of your departure.

Continuing Education Hour's

War Against Terrorism Segment – 16 Credits

4 - 5 May 2002 (No partial credits issued)

Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM) – Basic, Individual/Peer Support, Advance or Pastoral Crisis Intervention Certification Courses – 16 Credits

6 - 7 May '02 or 8 - 9 May '02 CISM Courses

CISM Instructors:

Elizabeth Dansie, M.A., M.F.T., B.C.E.T.S

David F. Wee, M.S.S.W., Mental Health Supervisor

Chaplain (Col) Linda E. Jordan, USAFR

Kristin L. Gray, EAP Coordinator, USCG

Thomas E. Webb, Th.M.

Camp Pendleton Billeting:

760-430-4702 or 4714

Uniform / Attire:

Army: Class 'B' or Battle Dress Uniform
Other Components: Equivalent Duty Uniform
Civilians: Slacks with no tie.

Registration Point of Contact:

LTC Ken Robinson

Director, Tri-Service Combat Stress Conference
Office of the Surgeon, 63d RSC, Los Alamitos, CA
Email: krobins4@san.rr.com
4594 Lisann St., San Diego, CA 92117-2439
Telephone (PST): 858-270-8815

U.S. Army
63d Regional Support Command

1st Marine Division

AMSUS

Psycho-Legal Associates, Inc
Continuing Education in Psychology & Law
P.O. Box 1458, Huntington Beach, CA 92647
(800) 547-2736

63d Regional Support
Commands
Present
10th Annual National
Tri-Service
Combat Stress Conference
And CISM – Certification

South Mesa NCO Club
Camp Pendleton, California
3 - 9 May 2002

Sponsored by:

63d RSC, Office of the Surgeon

1st Marine Division

Association of Military Surgeons
Of the United States (AMSUS)

Pfizer, Inc.

Psycho-Legal Associates, Inc.

Objectives of the conference:

1. Provide current information on Weapons of Mass Destruction.
2. Provide training and awareness on terrorism.
3. Provide instruction on mass casualties.
4. Discuss what the Military is doing to prevent and control terrorism.
5. Review issues in the military to psychological stress.

Participants will receive:

1. Working knowledge on bio-terrorism threats.
2. How terrorism works.
3. How to prevent psychological injury.
4. Awareness on psychological impact.
5. Current status on Combat Stress Programs in the Military.

Day One – Friday, 3 May 2002:

1300 – 1900 Late Registration

1400 – 1700 Human Assistance Rapid Response Team (HARRT) Members Meeting

COL Bart P. Billings, Ph.D., SCNG-SC (Ret)

1800 – 2000 *ReceptionPlanning Committee:

COL William Marshall – 63d RSC Surgeon, Los Alamitos
 LTC Ken Robinson – 63d RSC, Los Alamitos
 COL Bart P. Billings, Ph.D., SCNG-SC (Ret), Advisor
 CH (COL) Donald Forden - 63d RSC Chaplain, Los Alamitos
 COL James W. Stokes – USAMEDCOM, Ft. Sam Houston
 LT Jason Bennett – 1st MARDIV, Camp Pendleton
 CDR Kevin Moore – 1st MARDIV Surgeon
 MAJ Karen Johnson – 4211th USAH, San Diego

Day Two - Saturday, 4 May 2002

0700	Sign-In
0730	Welcome & Introduction: COL William Marshall, M.C., USAR – Narrator Command Surgeon, 63d RSC, Los Alamitos Chaplain (COL) Donald R. Forden USAR - Invocation, Command Chaplain, 63d RSC MG Robert B. Ostenberg, Commanding General, U.S. Army 63d Regional Support Command MajGen James T. Conway, Command General 1 st Marine Division, Camp Pendleton BG Harold Shively, M.D., USAR (Ret) COL Bart P. Billings, Ph.D., SCNG-SC (Ret)
0800	Is the Army Medical Command (USAMEDCOM) Ready for Weapons of Mass Destruction BG Richard D. Lynch, D.O., USAR (Ret)
0900	Grief...A Tangled 'Ball of Emotions' Dr. H. Norman Wright, M.R.E., M.A. Long Beach, CA
1100	Lunch
1200	Dealing with Combat / Operational Stress in Homeland Security COL James W. Stokes, M.S., USA, Combat Stress Control Program Officer, U.S. Army Medical Command (USAMEDCOM), San Antonio
1300	Combat Stress Units Operational COL Jaime I. Albornoz, M.D., Ph.D., USA Chief, Combat Stress & Control Programs SSG George Loucks, NCOIC, Special Subject, USAMEDCOM
1400	Bio-Chem Threats & 9-11 Pentagon Experience COL Ed Wakayama, M.S., USA, Director Operational Test / Evaluation, OSD, Pentagon
1530	Psychological Impact of Mass Fatalities MAJ Richard T. Keller, A.N., USA, Psychiatric Consultant – Liaison Services, Walter Reed AMC
1700	Adjourn

Day Three - Sunday 5 May 2002

0645	Church Services
0645	Sign-In
0715	Chaplain (COL) Donald R. Forden, USAR, 63d RSC
0730	New York City Experience at Ground Zero Chaplain (LTC) John South, USAR, 63d RSC
0830	Cohesion, Leadership, Training: Keys to Prevention of Psychological Injury Dr. Jonathan Shay, M.D., Ph.D, Boston, MA
1030	Psychiatric Evaluation of Suspected Terrorists (PEST) LTC Ansar M. Haroun, M.D., USAR, 4211th U.S. Army Hospital, San Diego
1130	Lunch
1230	Current Bio-Terrorism Threats (and how we dealt with the first anthrax) Ronald D. Harris, LtCol, USAFR, M.C., OTSG, USA, AVIP Agency as Director Reserve Medical Affairs
1330	Victim and Perpetrator: The Experience of Terrorist CDR Kevin Moore, MC, USN, 1st Marine Division, Command Surgeon, Camp Pendleton
1530	Readiness in Relation to Stress Management Chaplain (Col) Linda E. Jordan, USAFR, HQ Air Mobility Command/Headquarters Chaplain, Scott AFB
1630	Our Changing Culture-Coping with Terroristic Threat LTC Michael Bridgewater, M.S., Ph.D. USAR, 807th Med Bde, TX
1715	Adjourn

Monday - Tuesday, 0700 - 1700, 6 - 7 May 2002
Wednesday- Thursday, 0700 – 1700, 8-9 May 2002
Critical Incident Stress Management -

Certification Courses

Tuition Fee, includes manuals

Mon/Tues Instructors: Basic- Elizabeth Dansie,
 Advance - David F. Wee, Individual/Peer Support –
 Chaplain (Col) Linda E. Jordan

Wed/Thurs Instructors: Ind/Peer Spt – Kristin L.
 Gray, Pastoral Crisis – Thomas E. Webb