

Registration & Fees:

Advance registration is requested. Please complete and return the enclosed registration form to reserve seating.

Combat Stress of Terrorism - 2 days. Critical Incident Stress Management Courses - 2 day certification courses.

Note: Please do not make travel departure arrangements prior to 1900 on the day of your departure.

Continuing Education Hours

Combat Stress of Terrorism Segment – 16 Credits
3 - 4 May 2003 (No partial credits issued)

Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM) – Basic, Individual/Peer Support, Advanced, Trained Crisis Responder or Pastoral Crisis Intervention Certification Courses – 16 Credits
5 - 6 May 2003 or 7 - 8 May 2003 CISM Courses

CISM Instructors:

Elizabeth Dansie, M.A., M.F.T., B.C.E.T.S

David F. Wee, M.S.S.W., Mental Health Supervisor

Chaplain (MAJ) Phillip C. Conner, USA

Kristin L. Gray, EAP Coordinator, USCG

Thomas E. Webb, Th.M.

Camp Pendleton Billleting:

760-430-4702 or 4714

Uniform / Attire:

Army: Class 'B' or Battle Dress Uniform

Other Components: Equivalent Duty Uniform

Civilians: Slacks with no tie.

Registration Point of Contact:

LTC Ken Robinson

Director, Tri-Service Combat Stress Conference

Office of the Surgeon, 63d RSC, Los Alamitos, CA

Email: krobins4@san.rr.com

4594 Lisann St., San Diego, CA 92117-2439

Telephone (PST): 858-270-8815

U.S. Army
63d Regional Support Command

1st Marine Division

AMSUS

63d Regional Support
Commands
Present
11th Annual National
Tri-Service
Combat Stress Conference
And
CISM – Certification

San Luis Rey Officers Club
Camp Pendleton, California
3 - 8 May 2003

Sponsored by:

63d RSC, Office of the Surgeon

1st Marine Division

Association of Military Surgeons
Of the United States (AMSUS)

Security Battalion, C. Pendleton

Psycho-Legal Associates, Inc.

Psycho-Legal Associates, Inc
Continuing Education in Psychology & Law
P.O. Box 1458, Huntington Beach, CA 92647
(800) 547-2736

Registration & Fees:

Advance registration is requested. Please complete and return the enclosed registration form to reserve seating.

Combat Stress of Terrorism - 2 days. Critical Incident Stress Management Courses - 2 day certification courses.

Note: Please do not make travel departure arrangements prior to 1900 on the day of your departure.

Continuing Education Hours

Combat Stress of Terrorism Segment – 16 Credits
3 - 4 May 2003 (No partial credits issued)

Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM) – Basic, Individual/Peer Support, Advanced, Trained Crisis Responder or Pastoral Crisis Intervention Certification Courses – 16 Credits
5 - 6 May 2003 or 7 - 8 May 2003 CISM Courses

CISM Instructors:

Elizabeth Dansie, M.A., M.F.T., B.C.E.T.S

David F. Wee, M.S.S.W., Mental Health Supervisor

Chaplain (MAJ) Phillip C. Conner, USA

Kristin L. Gray, EAP Coordinator, USCG

Thomas E. Webb, Th.M.

Camp Pendleton Billleting:

760-430-4702 or 4714

Uniform / Attire:

Army: Class 'B' or Battle Dress Uniform

Other Components: Equivalent Duty Uniform

Civilians: Slacks with no tie.

Registration Point of Contact:

LTC Ken Robinson

Director, Tri-Service Combat Stress Conference

Office of the Surgeon, 63d RSC, Los Alamitos, CA

Email: krobins4@san.rr.com

4594 Lisann St., San Diego, CA 92117-2439

Telephone (PST): 858-270-8815

U.S. Army
63d Regional Support Command

1st Marine Division

AMSUS

63d Regional Support
Commands
Present
11th Annual National
Tri-Service
Combat Stress Conference
And
CISM – Certification

San Luis Rey Officers Club
Camp Pendleton, California
3 - 8 May 2003

Sponsored by:

63d RSC, Office of the Surgeon

1st Marine Division

Association of Military Surgeons
Of the United States (AMSUS)

Security Battalion, C. Pendleton

Psycho-Legal Associates, Inc.

Psycho-Legal Associates, Inc
Continuing Education in Psychology & Law
P.O. Box 1458, Huntington Beach, CA 92647
(800) 547-2736

Objectives of the conference:

1. Provide current information on Weapons of Mass Destruction.
2. Provide training and awareness on terrorism.
3. Provide instruction on mass casualties.
4. Discuss what the Military is doing to prevent and control terrorism.
5. Review issues in the military to psychological stress.

Participants will receive:

1. Working knowledge on bio-terrorism threats.
2. How terrorism works.
3. How to prevent psychological injury.
4. Awareness on psychological impact.
5. Current status on Combat Stress Programs in the Military.

Day One - Friday, 2 May 2003:

- 1300 - 1900 Late Registration
1700 - 2000 Reception

Planning Committee:

COL William Marshall - 63d RSC Surgeon, Los Alamitos
LTC Ken Robinson - 63d RSC, Los Alamitos
COL Bart P. Billings, Ph.D., SCNG-SC (Ret), Advisor
COL James W. Stokes - USAMEDCOM, Ft. Sam Houston
CDR Kevin Moore - 1st MARDIV Surgeon
CH (LT) Michael Belt, Security Bn, Camp Pendleton
MAJ Karen Johnson - 4211th USAH, San Diego
1LT Christina Tafolla, 63d RSC, Los Alamitos

Day Two - Saturday, 3 May 2003

- 0700 Sign-In
0730 Welcome & Introduction:
COL William Marshall, M.C., USAR - Narrator
Command Surgeon, 63d RSC, Los Alamitos
Chaplain (COL) John J. South USAR -
Invocation, Command Chaplain, 63d RSC
Col Bruce A. Giron, Division Rear OIC,
1st Marine Division, Camp Pendleton
COL Bart P. Billings, Ph.D., SCNG-SC (Ret)
Weapons of Biological Warfare and Terrorism
Col Ronald D. Harris, USAFR, M.C., OTSG,
USA, AVIP Director Reserve Medical Affairs
Psychiatric Aspects of Terrorism
LTC Ansar M. Haroun, M.D., USAR,
4211th U.S. Army Hospital, San Diego
PTSD and WMD Mass Casualty Consequence
CAPT Timothy E. Tyre, MSC, USNR, Special
Advisor Navy Surgeon General's Homeland
Security Office, BUMED, Washington, DC
California's Mobilization Stress Program
COL Sheila Dominguez, AN, CAARNG, STARC
MAJ Guy Lamunyon, AN, CAARNG, STARC
Lunch
1200 Emotional, Physical and Financial Impact of 9-11
MAJ Allen L. Hershman M.S., NYARNG,
Office of the State Surgeon, New York
Current and Future Combat Stress
COL James W. Stokes, M.S., USA, Combat Stress
Control Program Officer, U.S. Army Medical
Command (USAMEDCOM), San Antonio
1400 Family Deployment Stress
Carol Vandesteeg, author of "When Duty Calls",
San Antonio, TX
1500 Family Deployment Cycle Experience
Maj Beth A. Grady, BSC, USAF, Pediatric
Behavior Health Consultant, Willford Hall MC
1600 Adjourn

Day Three - Sunday 4 May 2003

- 0645 Church Services
0645 Sign-In
0730 Misconduct in the Battlefield
LTC Ansar M. Haroun, M.D., USAR
0830 Mass Hysteria and Bio-Terrorism
CAPT Michael J. Bailey, MC, USNR
Navy Medical Center, San Diego, CA
1000 Anger Management Training in the Combat Zone
MAJ Valvincent A. Reyes, M.S., USAR,
113th Medical Company (CSC), Stanton, CA
1100 Lunch
1200 Respond to Disaster: Psychological, Community, and Ecological Approaches
Richard M. Gist, Ph.D., Principal Assistant to the Director
Kansas City, Missouri Fire Department
1330 PTSD Reactivation Syndrome Among POW's After 9-11
COL William Marshall, M.C., USAR
1430 A Review of Effectiveness and 'Best Practices' in Emergency Mental Health Within the Military
David F. Wee, Mental Health, City of Berkeley, CA
1530 Disaster Deployment: The Before, During and After Team Care
Elizabeth Dansie, M.A., M.F.T., B.C.E.T.S., Concord, CA
1630 Adjourn
Monday - Tuesday, 0700 - 1700, 5 - 6 May 2003
Wednesday - Thursday, 0700 - 1700, 7 - 8 May 2003
Critical Incident Stress Management - Certification Courses
Tuition Fee, includes manuals
CISM Instructors: Basic - Elizabeth Dansie, Advanced - David F. Wee,
Train Crisis Responder - CH (MAJ) Phillip C. Conner, Individual / Peer Support - Kristin L. Gray, Pastoral Crisis Responder - Thomas E. Webb