Dates: 23 - 28 April 2005 Tri-Service Combat Stress
Location: San Luis Rey Officers Club, Camp Pendleton, CA

Objectives of the conference:

1. The attendees of the conference will gain the clinical acumen and skills necessary to respond to the psychological, mental and spiritual needs of soldiers experiencing various acts of combat stress.
2. Certifies the attendees in the core elements of a comprehensive, systematic and multi-component crisis intervention curriculum and debriefing techniques (ie., critical incident stress management, CISM instruction).

By the end of the activity, the participants will be able to:

1. Understand the impact the suicide has on the military particularly during times of combat and prepare caregivers of all backgrounds to provide emergency first aid, life-assisting interventions to persons at risk of suicide. Intervention includes modifying attitudes, knowledge, skills and resources.
